Goochland County

I Phebe Ann Watton wife of Jesse W. Watton being of Sound mind and perfect Memory and being in feeble health, and realizing the uncertainty of human life, do make this my last will and Testiment. I give and bequeath unto my husband Jesse W. Watton all of the real estate which I have inherited from my brother Joseph W Jordan consisting of ten acres and one tenth of one acre of wood land lying and being in the lower End of the said County of Goochland, the Metes and bounds of which may be seen by reference to plat and Survey recently made by Benjamin B Pleasants, and assigned to the said Jesse W. Watton by Commissioners appointed by the County Court of Goochland County for the purpose of dividing the real estate of which said Joseph W. Jordan died seized and possessed, among his heirs at law. Given under my hand and seal this fourth day of October eighteen hundred and Sixty six
